

AFGANISTAN

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Household Goods	BL/AWB consigned to client's name, company or embassy Inventory List Passport copy	Duty free entry available to those who are guaranteed by the Afghan Ministry of Foreign Affairs and for official diplomats.	Do not ship without release from your agent. Household goods shipments containing large quantities of the same item of any kind are considered as commercial goods. In such cases, different rules will apply. It is recommended that you check with your agent in Afghanistan, before shipping goods, to avoid any customs fines associated with commercial shipping. Shipment can be cleared prior to shipper arrival.
Individual shipments	OBL/AWB as above Inventory List Passport copy	All shipments may be dutiable.	Do not ship without release from green light from agent
Vehicles	OBL/AWB Certificate of Origin or Title VIN number required on AWB/OBL	Free for diplomats or for those guaranteed by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, otherwise, Customs duties will be imposed.	Number of cylinders and how many seats in each vehicle. Vehicles may NOT be exported as private moves. Only vehicles associated with a relief organization may be exported.  Private parties may import vehicles without issues.
Commercial Shipments	Import license AWB/OBL Commercial invoice stamped by vendor	Customs duties Sales tax Service fees	All vehicles must be less than 20 years old.
Alcohol	Not allowed	Not allowed	Not allowed
Food products, seeds, and/or plants	If for commercial purpose: Legalized certificate of origin Import license Certificate of manufacturing date on each carton with name of consignee	All commodities must be cleared prior to import to avoid delays, demurrage, and storage.	Must be inspected by the Ministry of Agriculture prior to clearance Must get approval from Ministry of Health
Video tapes, cassettes &amp;		If shipped in large quantities may be inspected

AFGANISTAN

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
records and CDs		by Censorship Department prior to clearance of shipment.
Telecommunications Equipment: Radios, telephones, satellite receivers &amp; decoders		Must be approved by the Ministry of Telecommunications Serial Number should be written on the packing list next to all appliances
Books		Must be inspected by the Ministry of Culture prior to clearance if shipped in large quantities.
Firearms		Prohibited if without license
Drugs, medical drugs in large quantity, narcotics	Ministry of Public Health Ministry of Narcotics		Pre approval required prior to export
Pornographic Material	Prohibited		